Remedial measures to check sexual and violent contents in films

†3950. SHRI JAIPARKASH AGGARWAL: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

whether any steps have been taken or proposed to be taken by the Central Government regarding remedial measures to check the adverse effects of increasing sexual and violent contents in the films;

if so, the details thereof as on date; and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI PRIYARANJAN DASMUNSI): (a) and (b) Central Board of Film Certification certifies films as per the provisions of Cinematograph Act, 1952 and Rules and Guidelines framed thereunder. Scenes which are violative of the provisions of the Act, Rules and Guidelines are deleted. While certifying films care is taken to categories films whose contents are not suitable for minors as 'A'. The guidelines inter alia stipulate the following:

Anti-social activities such as violence are not glorified and justified.

Pointless or avoidable scenes of violence, cruelty and horror, scenes of violence primarily intended to provide entertainment and such scenes as may have the effect of desensitizing or dehumanizing people are not shown.

Human sensibilities are not offended by vulgarity, obscenity, or depravity;

Words with dual meaning as obviously cater to baser instincts are not allowed;

scenes degrading or denigrating women in any manner are not presented;

Scenes showing sexual perversions shall be avoided and if such matters are germane to the theme, they shall be reduced to the minimum and no details are shown.

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi

The number of films which were refused certification during the last three years and those in which cuts were given are as under:

Year	No. of films refused certification	No. of films certified with cuts
2005	18	473
2006	59	453
2007	11	395

(c) Does not arise.

Communal material in Bal Bharti

3951. SHRI ALI ANWAR: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

whether it is a fact that the publication division is publishing a magazine titled Bal Bharti to create scientific awareness among children;

whether it is also a fact that contrary to the declared objectives, an attempt was made to arouse communal sentiments by publishing communal material in some of the issues in the year 2004;

if so, whether Government would conduct any inquiry to identify the persons responsible and the action to be taken against them; and whether Government proposes to evolve any mechanism for evaluation of magazines for children?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI PRIYARANJAN DASMUNSI):(a)Yes,Sir.

No, Sir. No material published in Bal Bharati in the year 2004 had any content aimed to arouse communal sentiments.

Does not arise in view of (b) above.

Publications Division publishes only one magazine for children i.e., Bal Bharati. Contents of this magazine are selected and supervised by the senior editorial officers of the Division. Due care is taken to ensure that the contents are within the framework of cherished national objectives and values such as social harmony, national integration, shared legacy of art, culture, history and heritage, protection of environment and over all, promotion of goodwill towards all.
